

1 John 4:20 If someone says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?²¹ And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

2 Corinthians 5:14 For the love of Christ compels us, because we judge thus: that if One died for all, then all died;¹⁵ and He died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.

Matthew 24:12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

1 John 4:20 If someone says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?²¹ And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

John 14:15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.

1 John 3:10 In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother.¹¹ For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.
